

CREATIVE ARTS SUMMER PROGRAM

FOR GRANDMONT ROSEDALE YOUTH

WHO: Grandmont Rosedale youth ages 13-19

WHAT: Summer-long creative arts and performing arts program with weekly workshops (photography, recycled/found art, jewelry making, etc.). Youth will also write, design and produce their own vignettes/plays under the guidance of a Wayne State University theatre instructor

WHEN: June 25-August 29, Tues-Wed 12-4 pm, Thurs 6-8 pm

WHERE: Most workshops will be held at the Redford Library, located at 21200 Grand River, although some workshops will be held off site (transportation will be provided).

Youth will perform their show and display their artwork in a community gallery at the end of the program and will track their successes with an online portfolio. There is a $10 one-time fee per youth for supplies.

Weekly Art Workshops

Field Trips

Theatre

Community Projects

YOUTH PROGRAM REGISTRATION FORM

Return this form with your payment of $10 to GRDC (located at 19800 Grand River Ave) to register today!

YOUTH INFO

NAME: _____

E-MAIL: _____

PHONE: _____

ADDRESS: _____

AGE: _____

PARENT/GUARDIAN INFO

NAME: _____

EMAIL: _____

PHONE: _____

Limited spots available...
*Register today!

QUESTIONS?

Contact Sean Wahl, GRDC Sustainable Communities Program Intern to learn more: 313.387.4732, ext. 120.

GRANDMONT
ROSEDALE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION